ABOUT FPD

Fattoria Pugliese Diffusa APS was born in 2009 and since that moment, it has worked to promote and facilitate the development of rural areas of Puglia, particularly Salento.

In the recent years, FPD has focused its attention on European mobility and on tools for participation in local and EU democratic life.

Since January 2020, FPD is in charge of two properties:

1

EurHope - building located in Taurisano, confiscated from the local mafia and used as a center for legal education for minors and young people at risk of social exclusion

2

Casa Turrita - historic residence located in the Presicce used as a social and community space for promoting social inclusion of the vulnerable groups through the creation of social gardens, orchards, biodiversity reserves, recreational, artistic, creative and self-entrepreneurship support activities.

Welcome to the Rural Area of Salento

TAURISANO

Taurisano is a town located in the Lecce county, in the Apuglia region. It is the place of birth of the philosopher Giulio Cesare Vanini. It has around 12.000 inhabitants and is a place of transgenerational and cultural sharing, being open to foreigners.

Salento is a sub-region that extends over the southern part of Puglia. It is washed by the wonderful Ionian and Adriatic Seas.
